MARKED FOR THE GRAVE.

An Unfortunate Colored Girl Taken to the County Jail to Die.

Julia Walker is an unfortunate colored girl who was hauled to the police headquarters last night, in the last stages of phthisis, and suffering from mental derangement. She is destitute, but had been cared for by John Haskell, at the corner of Washington and Center streets. She is consumptive and cannot live long. Her illness is responsible for her insanity. The girl is too weak to be violent, but she talks incessantly and aimlessly.

City Physician Hibben was summoned and found her in a hectic fever. He says the girl is sure to die, and cannot live to exceed a few weeks. Inasmuch as the police station is ill-adapted to such cases she was transferred on a stretcher to the county jail. The unfortunate girl is receiving the best care the county jail has at its disposal, but she needs something better.

Some people always look fresh and young, while others look prematurely old, with skin dried up and wrinkled. The only difference between the two is the loss of vitality in the blood. People using Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker always look fresh and healthy. Sold and warranted by your popular druggist, W. R. Kennedy.

Hello Central, hello! Connect me with the Shakers at Crawford's opera house. Hello! Save me ten seats Monday night. The show is free. Come and get them.
